The time for ePrescribing is now

With the number of prescriptions filled annually now close to 4 billion, pharmacies face an ever-growing need to increase efficiency in the pharmacy. Emdeon Script streamlines prescription communications between doctors and pharmacies throughout the entire prescription cycle and puts valuable time back into pharmacists' hands.

Emdeon Script is simple and reliable

With Emdeon Script, pharmacies receive fewer phone calls and interruptions that can result in a more balanced workload. Pharmacists can now respond quickly to numerous transactions efficiently organized within their pharmacy management system. Fewer illegible or incomplete prescriptions, simplified administration and improved patient safety all allow them to spend more time with patients.

Robust connectivity between pharmacies and physicians

Connecting pharmacies and physicians is the key to ePrescribing success. More and more physicians are adopting ePrescribing as a step toward electronic medical records (EMRs) and to improve office workflow efficiency. As a result, Emdeon Business Services is connecting new physicians to our ePrescribing switch at a rapid pace, making Emdeon Script a compelling ePrescribing choice for pharmacies.
